

Immediate

Rec June 3^d

Rec^d Samuel May Jun^r

Anti Slavery Office
Boston
U. S.

10501
161XND
5100

MAY 20

5
CENTS

ms. B. 16 v. 7, p. 44

eye of man has not seen has already furnished the of my dear husband; It will contain very much of his correspondence on Anti Slavery and other subjects and will, I believe be interesting beyond his own circle of friends - I think there is no international copy right between us and America, so that Mr Henderson intends to send you the first copy that ignorance is because and the art of men concerns of that which is

In this
to be guiltily
for many
May
more and the workers in field
blessed
yours truly
Henderson
Bristol
1859.

Dear Mr May
My friend Mr Henderson is to you & me and at the workers in
field
blessed
yours truly
Henderson
Bristol
1859.

is printed before it can be published in England in the hope that should it appear likely to interest American readers, you might be able to make some arrangement with a Boston publisher which through him should secure to me a certain interest in any reprint that might be made of it there. - Would it not be possible to give the sole right of reprinting to some person subject to certain arrangements in my favour -

There will be no time to write to me about it before the book is out, but if you can do any thing for me I think I am not wrong in believing that you will do so - I give hope

The printing will be finished by the end of this month, but ~~then~~ it will be at least a fortnight longer before it is ready for the book-sellers. I shall have the parcel directed to you at the Anti Slavery office Boston and if my plan is a feasible one perhaps you will make such arrangements with any publisher or printer you may think of,
as will enable him to have it, to send over, immediately on its arrival, even if you are not yourself in town — After all, the plan I have thought of may be impracticable; or the book may not be thought to possess the interest I imagine — if so I shall not feel disappointed at your being unable to comply with my request — Through Mr Henderson has consulted the

it has been from materials with which I have supplied him, & we have consulted together about it - You will readily imagine what a source of deep interest it has been to me, and how the perusal of all the papers I have had to look over has recalled most vividly every day of my most happy married life - I often feel it difficult to maintain my tranquility - and time does not lessen my sense of the great loss I have sustained, but I thank God, I know it does bring me nearer to the hour when the lost shall be restored - and though part of my pain is that I can form no idea of how the future life will be, I can believe and trust, knowing that our